

Sleepy Hollow Farm Presents

Compact Long Lining Clinic With Meghan Hamilton-Yallen

Saturday April 16th 2011

- What: Compact Long Lining Clinic with Meghan Hamilton-Yallen
Demystify long lining techniques in simple easy to learn steps, learn solutions to today's common training problems and work your way to success in the lines.
- Time: 8am-5pm Sat
8am-9 Discussion on proper equipment, theory, technique, and 45-60 minute sessions with breaks, lunch from 12-1pm. 1pm clinic resumes.
- Where: Sundance Trail- Home of Elite Equine Imports- Located at 158 North Street, Mattapoisett, Ma
Enjoy working inside Sundance Trail's gorgeous European style indoor Facility w/heated viewing room.
- Why Long Line? Long Lining is a wonderful training tool for preparing the young horse, conditioning for any discipline, driving preparation, rehabilitation, and is an effective alternative to warming up and alternating training.
- Details: Tired, frustrated & stagnant with your training? Want to turn a new leaf over and find a creative outlet for winter training? You WILL be energized, excited, and more confident using the easy to learn techniques taught in this Long Lining clinic with Meghan Hamilton-Yallen. New doors will open up to many easy learning opportunities with Long Lining training your horses will thank you!

This Compact Long Lining Clinic is both a spectator and participation event. Auditors are welcome & encouraged. We have limited slots available for individuals interested in learning to Long Line their horse directly, so please contact us as soon as possible. Demonstration horses will be available for those not interested in trailering in. There will be Demonstrations both days prior to individual work with Meghan Hamilton-Yallen. A simple continental breakfast snack & beverage is included in auditors and participants fees.

Meghan Hamilton-Yallen considers herself a "natural classicist" and enjoys connecting horses and people using a variety of engaging techniques. An avid horse women for over 25 years, her career began when she was only 4. She is truly inspiring, easy to speak to, detailed in her instruction, and easily understood.

Join us and be inspired to develop the tools you need to get the very best result from your horse. Don't miss this great event, an opportunity to expand your training repertoire and brighten up your winter months with some fantastic new training tools and meet other fun fabulous horse women and men! Horses should have basic lunging skills.

Participant Fee $135 Auditor $25/day $5 Discount to NEDA Members!!!!!!

Please visit sleepyhollowfarmma.com/workshopsclasses for REGISTRATION and more information.
Contact sleepyhollowfarm@live.com or call 508-317-0098 with any questions.